Transform!

By Jenny Brown

Transformation is the theme for our Sunday morning forum in Easter season this year. How does God transform us through the Incarnation? How does God use the created world to delight, call, and eventually change our spiritual selves?

This year, we are looking at each of the five senses in turn, to find out how God wants us to seek and find him through our physical bodies and through the world around us.

Please join us at 9:15am each Sunday in the Great Hall, beginning on April 15, for a journey toward transformation.

From the Interim Vicar

By the Rev. Canon Kristi Philip

I have to confess that I just love questions. And I suppose this has been a help in two vocations: journalist and priest. Newspaper reporters and editors have to ask questions – it’s a process that shapes reporting. Wise pastors ask questions, too – lots of them. Questions that help us to get to know people better and questions that help our churches function in healthy ways.

My bookshelves have an embarrassing number of books built around questions – revealed in their subtitles, like: “Ten Questions that are Transforming Faith”. (subtitle of A New Kind of Christianity, by Brian McLaren) and “Six Tough Questions for the Church” (subtitle of The Present Future, by Diana Butler Bass.

But my current favorite collection of wonderful and helpful questions comes from a little book that comes from outside church circles. It is an expanded version of a commencement address by James Ryan, dean of the Graduate School of Education at Harvard and soon to become president of the University of Virginia. Its title is one of five questions that he says are essential to getting through life: Wait, What?

I agree with Ryan that his questions are essential ones as we move through our lives, but I think they are also worth considering as we look at our life together as a congregation. As I read this small book, I kept thinking, “Those are questions that would make us a stronger community if we asked them (and listened to the answers).

“Wait, what?” is what we ask when we want clarification before we come to a conclusion about something. When making decisions or plowing through complicated topics, it’s an invitation to slow down and, possibly, ask a few more questions before rushing ahead.

“I wonder...?” is one of those things we ask to expand our opportunities, keep our minds open, look at other options. Our adult education sub-committee asked a version of this question before offering a small-group Bible reflection during Lent – a format that wasn’t in our current menu of formation options.

“Couldn’t we at least...?” is a question that helps us get past roadblocks or disagreements by offering a place of common ground where we can start again. “Couldn’t we at least agree that we want to welcome people to the Cathedral?” for instance.

“How can I help?” indicates a willingness to lend a hand in some way. It is also a question that is asked with humility. It doesn’t presume, for instance, that we already know what the best way is to help. It says we are open to take direction.

“What truly matters (to me/us)?” is a question that helps us get to the heart of who we are and what we value. It points us to the heart of our convictions and shared beliefs and ask how what we value shapes our life together.

That’s a very quick summary of a little book that has had me pondering those questions for several months since I first read it. It reminds me that it is vitally important to ask thoughtful questions and to listen to one another. Maybe this is a book worth chewing on in a book group in the coming months. I wonder ...

Thank you!

By Linda Finney, Service League

You may have noticed the beautiful new mirror over the fireplace in the Guild Rooms. The mirror was donated by Marguerite, Anjanette, Rob, Dee, and Bella Green in loving memory of Julie Green. I Cor. 13:12—"For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face." Service League had the mirror framed and installed.

Service League thanks the Green family for their kind gift and thanks the Chapter for its consultation on this project and on the refurbishment of the Guild Rooms.

Easter Flowers / Music

Help beautify the Cathedral for Easter! Special décor and music are possible only through generous gifts from members and friends of the Cathedral.

Please contribute now. Make checks payable to "St. John's Cathedral" and mark them for either Easter Flowers or Easter Music. Checks marked for both flowers and music will go equally to both funds. Please note in whose honor the gift is given.

Jesus Was An Episcopalian

"Jesus was an Episcopalian. Ok, busted. I admit that this is a ridiculously audacious anachronism that calls into question our very intelligence... So why suggest that, among all these options, Jesus, the Jew, was an Episcopalian? Well, he wasn't. But he was very interested in doing the kind of work that Episcopalians are up to: healing, fixing, re-building, praying, teaching, preaching, loving, and making disciples out of a new generation of people who are searching for God."

So begins the foundational text for our Eastertide weekly formation program, Jesus was an Episcopalian. This text will guide our time together in formation specifically designed for: those seeking confirmation in the Episcopal Church, those seeking reception into the Episcopal Church, those who are new to the Episcopal Church and want to learn more, and even those who are simply interested in learning how Jesus might just have been an Episcopalian if he'd had the choice. In other words, all are welcome to join us (but please RSVP!).

As is traditional following the Easter celebration, we will prepare with those who are interested in seeking confirmation or reception or simply are interested in learning more about the Episcopal Church for whatever reason. Confirmation is the sacramental rite in which the candidates "express a mature commitment to Christ, and receive strength from the Holy Spirit through prayer and the laying on of hands by a bishop" (BCP, p. 860). Those who were baptized at an early age and those baptized as adults without laying on of hands by a bishop are expected to make a mature public affirmation of their faith, recommit themselves to the responsibilities of their baptism, and receive laying on of hands by a bishop (BCP, p. 412). Adults baptized with the laying on of hands by a bishop are considered to be confirmed.

The Prayer Book rite for Confirmation includes forms for Reception and the Reaffirmation of Baptismal Vows. In some dioceses, those who have already made a mature Christian commitment in another denomination (most often including confirmation in another denomination) are recognized as members of the one holy catholic and apostolic church, and received into the fellowship of the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion. Preparation for Confirmation/Reception/Reaffirmation should help the candidates discover the meaning of Christian commitment in their lives, and explore ways that their Christian commitment can be lived. Confirmation/Reception/Reaffirmation will occur when the Bishop is with us on Sunday, June 3, at 10:30am.

If this sounds even somewhat interesting to you, please talk with Fr. Nic to claim your spot and a copy of the book. We will meet on Tuesdays, 6:30pm-8pm (dinner will be provided), beginning April 10 and going through May 29. We ask that you commit to making at least 6 of the 8 weeks. We hope you will join us!

Young Eagles (grade 3-6)

Doing Christ's Work Together

This month in Children and Youth Ministries is one of activism and internalizing Holy Week through participating in worship and engaging our surrounding community. Our youngest members are living out the mission of Christ by serving others, standing up for their lives and encountering Christ through Holy Week.

The Sunday School schedule is fluid. The 8am and 10:30am Sunday School will not meet on Easter. On Sunday, April 8, we will offer Sunday School at 8am and 10:30am. Starting April 15, the 8am class will be canceled to make room for the 9am Risen family service which will be similar to the Promise Lenten family service.

Young Eagles, Youth Group, and their families had the opportunity to march downtown during the March for Our Lives event on Saturday, March 24. March for Our Lives is a nationwide protest to demand that the lives and safety of our children become a priority and that we work towards ending gun violence in our schools and communities.

On Wednesday, March 28, the youth group will assist in the Holy Week Tenebrae service. As usual, we will meet downstairs at 6pm to have dinner before going into the Nave for the 7pm service.

At noon on Good Friday, March 30, children, youth, and their families are invited to join me and members of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church as we walk the Stations of the Cross in downtown Spokane. We will meet at the Rotary Fountain at Riverfront Park and the event will end under the freeway at Fourth and Howard.

This urban experience has 14 different stations that recognize social service agencies and ministries that help the homeless, oppressed, sick and downtrodden. While bringing awareness to the issues that surround our community, we walk with Christ and immerse ourselves in this holy experience.

Saturday, April 14, is the annual spring cleaning at the Cathedral. All of our children and youth are invited to help out.

On May 25-27, Camp Cross will be hosting their first Youth Labor of Love event! This is a mission project that the senior high youth have been dreaming about doing for the past few years. This group will include all of those entering 9th-12th grade and graduating seniors. If your youth needs Volunteer Hours, this is a great way to get them! Skip Hubbard, the new Operations Director and Business Manager said that he would sign them all! It's free, fun, and a great way to live out our identities as members of the Jesus movement! Register now: www.campcross.org

Please keep our children, youth and their families in your prayers as we march tomorrow and continue serving others in our community. I wish you all a blessed Holy Week.

Easter Egg Hunt

On Sunday, April 8, we will hold the annual Easter Egg hunt!

Following the 10:30am service there will be an Easter Party in the Great Hall, sponsored by the St. Nicholas Guild.

After refreshments, we will gather on the lawn outside of Jewett House for the Easter Egg Hunt. All children from babies until 18 years of age are welcome to participate.

You may bring your own Easter baskets or you are welcome to use bags that will be provided.

Dance & Potluck

Folks of all ages and dancing abilities are invited to a contra dance in the Great Hall on Friday, April 6. The evening begins at 6:30pm with a potluck dinner followed by dancing, 7pm-8pm—all in the Great Hall. These dances are open to adults, children, families, and singles. Susan Dankovich teaches the dances so that you can learn as you participate.

Questions? Talk to Lucas Kulhanek-Arenas, 838-4277.

From the Senior Warden

By John Wallingford

The Tuesday, March 20, Chapter meeting touched on a host of matters, from leadership of standing committees and learning that an additional, unsolicited (and ridiculously low) bid to purchase the Windfall property was not in the best interests of an important ministry there, to major reports from Communications and the Dean Call Committee. Regarding standing committees: Libby Pugel has stepped down from leadership of Stewardship and Liesel Kittlitz has stepped down from Communications. Both have given outstanding service to our parish community, in vital areas. I hope you will make a point of saying thank you to Libby and Liesel.

I have been talking with a number of parishioners to reconstitute the Outreach Committee to identify contact persons for our current efforts for persons with special need, e.g., Family Promise (thank you, Dave Walker); Windfall (thank you, Pat Williams and Carol Albietz Vigus) West Central Dinner Table (thank you Ann Harder), Meals on Wheels (thank you, Doug Beane) to name a few, and expand our list of contact persons for environmental issues, social justice issues and civic engagement issues.

I think the congregation at the Cathedral already is involved in so many worthwhile activities throughout Spokane that a new congregant looking to serve could readily find an activity if they just knew to whom they should speak. Imagine a directory of contacts! What would you put down for your activity? Count me in for picking up litter with Riverkeepers.

On behalf of the Communications Committee, Priest Associate

Nic Mather described recent success in creating new name tags and event banners, developing e-news to complement the Chimes, the ongoing work on the website, and attending to the aged sign on Grand Boulevard. One task ahead that will involve Communications is an informational brochure about Cathedral offerings. Such a brochure would be useful at any of the points of entry to our faith community, from those outreach activities named above, to the Choir, Service League and Guilds, youth activities. It could be available at places where visitors enter the Cathedral. When you think about it, the points of entry to the Cathedral community are not the institutions, it is us. We are the point of entry a community committed to the Kingdom of God.

The other major report was from the Dean Call Committee. Karen Martin and Eric Baldwin related that the Dean Call Committee is concluding the process of reviewing the candidates and expect to provide to Chapter the top candidates on April 9. Chapter will convene with Bishop Rehberg and Rev. Canon Susan Cleveley on April 17 to begin the final stages of discernment, including visitations by candidates. That process will be developed March 24.

Meanwhile, we are looking to give our campus a good spring cleaning. Mark your calendars to help on Saturday April 14, beginning at 9am. Property Chair Bill Selby and Chapter members Kathie Hawkins, Patti Stice, Gretchen Ramey and Jason Brown will coordinate that effort.

My thanks to this congregation for living into Paul's admonition "Therefore, encourage and build one another up, just as you are doing." (1 Thessalonians 5:11)

Spring Clean Up

Come one, come all, to St. John's annual spring cleanup. Join us at 9am on Saturday, April 14, for a day of work, fellowship, and food. In addition to tidying the grounds, we'll be clearing clutter from inside the building.

Bring your energy, gloves, rakes, and brooms. As always, many hands make light work, and the more, the merrier.

Coffee and donuts are provided, but additional donations of treats are always welcome.

Hanging Flower Baskets

Your Altar Guild is excited to offer Hanging Flower Baskets for sale again this year. The 14" baskets are fresh, colorful, and healthy, as they are grown by a local greenhouse in many different flower and color combinations. The baskets are beautiful and are perfect for your home or as a Mother's Day gift (which is Sunday, May 13).

Altar Guild members will be available in the Great Hall before and after the 10:30am service on April 8 to take orders. The hanging baskets are a reasonable $25 each. Make your check payable to St. John's Cathedral with "Altar Guild flower basket" in the memo field. Baskets will be available to pick up at the Cathedral on Saturday, May 5 around 9am. Orders are due with full payment by April 8, so don't delay!

If you can't place your order in person, you can also leave a message with Joan in the Cathedral office, 509-838-4277, and one of us will call you to take your order.

100% of Altar Guild funds stay at the Cathedral.

From the Priest Associate

By the Rev. Nic Mather

This Holy Week I want to invite you to join us for a different experience of Maundy Thursday.

Maundy Thursday is a night where we make note of a very important evening in the ministry of Jesus Christ, the last one he would share with his friends, his disciples. Within this evening, and as reflected in the readings we have assigned for this service, the final touches of Jesus' teachings were made, leaving a lasting legacy for how we are to serve one another and how we are to remember not just this night, but the entirety of Jesus' life and ministry through our ritual actions.

This year at St. John's, we invite you to come and experience this holy night of the last supper. We will gather together at 6pm in the Great Hall, where our service will begin with prayer and a (provided) meal that will be shared by all in attendance. Just as Jesus was at supper with his friends on this final night before his death, so to shall we come together as a community in the breaking of bread and the sharing of a meal with one another. It is important to note that the dinner is our liturgy this year, it is not an optional event that happens beforehand.

And, just as Jesus did on his final night, we will have the (optional) opportunity to humble ourselves, taking on the role of servant, and practice the ancient act of foot washing. There will be two stations for foot washing, and at the appropriate time you will be invited to have your feet washed, and to wash the feet of your friends, sharing in this act of service with each other.

Following our dinner liturgy, including the option for foot washing, we will process as a gathered congregation into the sanctuary to participate together in the stripping and washing of the altar. Those assigned will remove the various items from the sanctuary space, and then water and rags will be made available for any of those who would like to participate in the washing of the altar. This will be the final ritual act of our service together and you will be instructed to leave in silence following.

I wanted to lay out this service in detail because it is such a radical departure from what we have done in the past here at St. John's. And yet, the service we will experience together is closely tied to the tradition that is laid out for us in the readings and history that come with the experience of Maundy Thursday as an entry into the Triduum, that is the three days of observance before Easter Sunday. I invite you to join us for Maundy Thursday and all of Holy Week this year at St. John's.

Stewardship Update

The 2017 Stewardship Campaign "officially" ended with the passing of our budget at the Annual Meeting. Those of us who worked on the Campaign wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to all members who have made a pledge to the day-to-day expenses of St. Johns. Your effort pays salaries, provides maintenance, enables programs for children, youth and adults, gets the lawns mowed and the snow cleared, provides the heat and lights, and a myriad of other expenses. This year we are grateful to report that 175 family units pledged a total of $348,525. Without this participation, we would only have a quiet building, beautiful but without the vibrancy which comes from activities and people!

But wait, there is more! If you have not made a pledge, it is always possible to do so! Chapter members were reminded recently that our budget is still out of balance to the tune of about $13,000. Might you be called to make a pledge to help St. John's? The budget gap calculates to $6 per month for existing pledgers, and we ask those who already have pledged to consider a modest increase in their giving. There are pledge cards on the desk in the Welcome Center, and you can always call the office and speak to Rosie Banta, our financial secretary.

With gratitude and hope,

The Stewardship Committee
2017: Karen Byrne, Jim Foerster, Robert Stevens, Peggy Johnson, Russell Werkman, Sarah Robertson, Kristi Philip, and Libby Pugel, Chair
